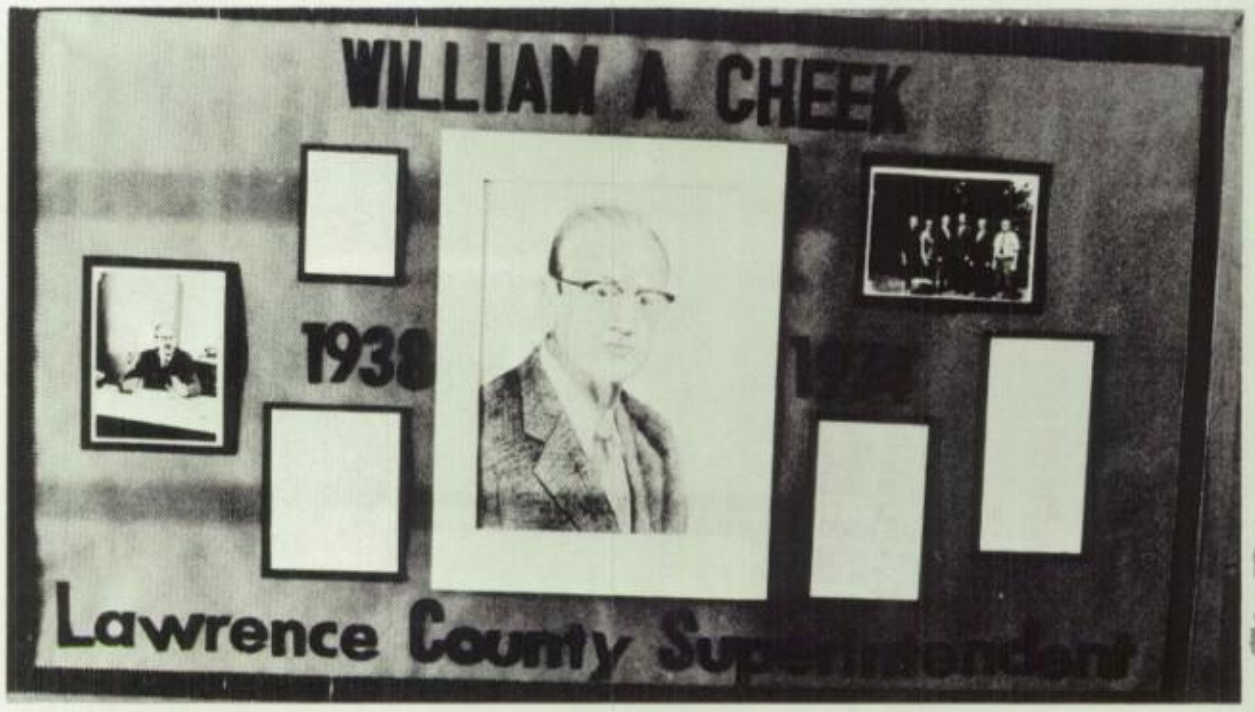
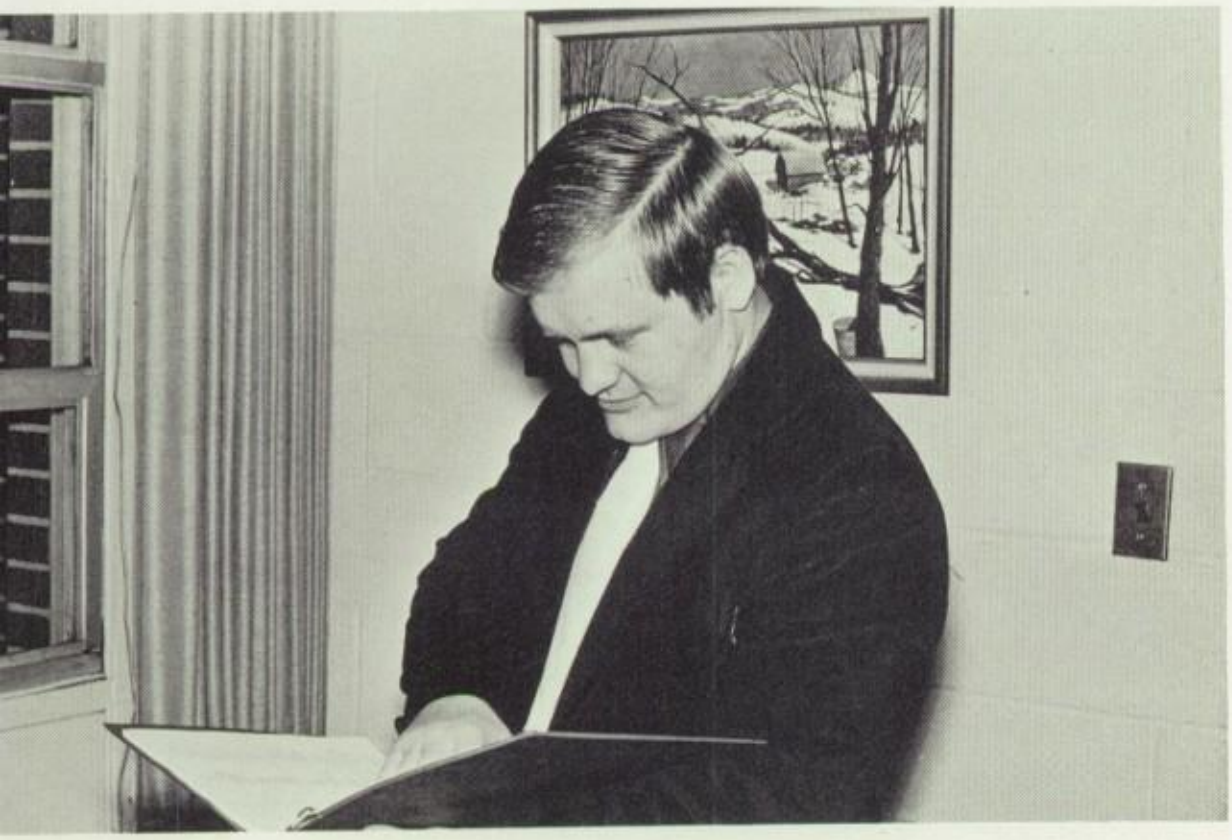
Faces of Devotion

Supt. W. A. Cheek Retires After 36 Years of Service

TOP RIGHT: The tasks of formulating all school policies and employing all school personnel rest with the members of the Lawrence County Board of Education and Superintendent Cheek. Board members were, left to right, Bill Hardin, William A. Cheek, superintendent, Mrs. Rozella Elswick, Mrs. Lizzie Graham, Luke Varney, Sr., Edgar Boggs.



RIGHT, BELOW, BELOW RIGHT: After a 36 year tenure as superintendent of the Lawrence County School system, Mr. William Cheek will retire on June 30, 1974. Mr. Cheek was first employed in the Lawrence County School system as a teacher in a one room school, before becoming principal at Webbville High School in 1934, and two years after assumed the principalship of Louisa High School. In 1938, Mr. Cheek was named superintendent of Lawrence County schools. He currently holds the record for the longest tenure of any superintendent in Kentucky. His knowledge, skill, devotion and enthusiasm, as school superintendent will be missed.



TOP: Communication with the public is only one of the diverse aspects of Mr. Young's job as LHS principal.

LEFT: Mr. Cooksey, assisting Mr. Young in the supervision of students, checks to confirm that all teachers have 'signed in' for the day.

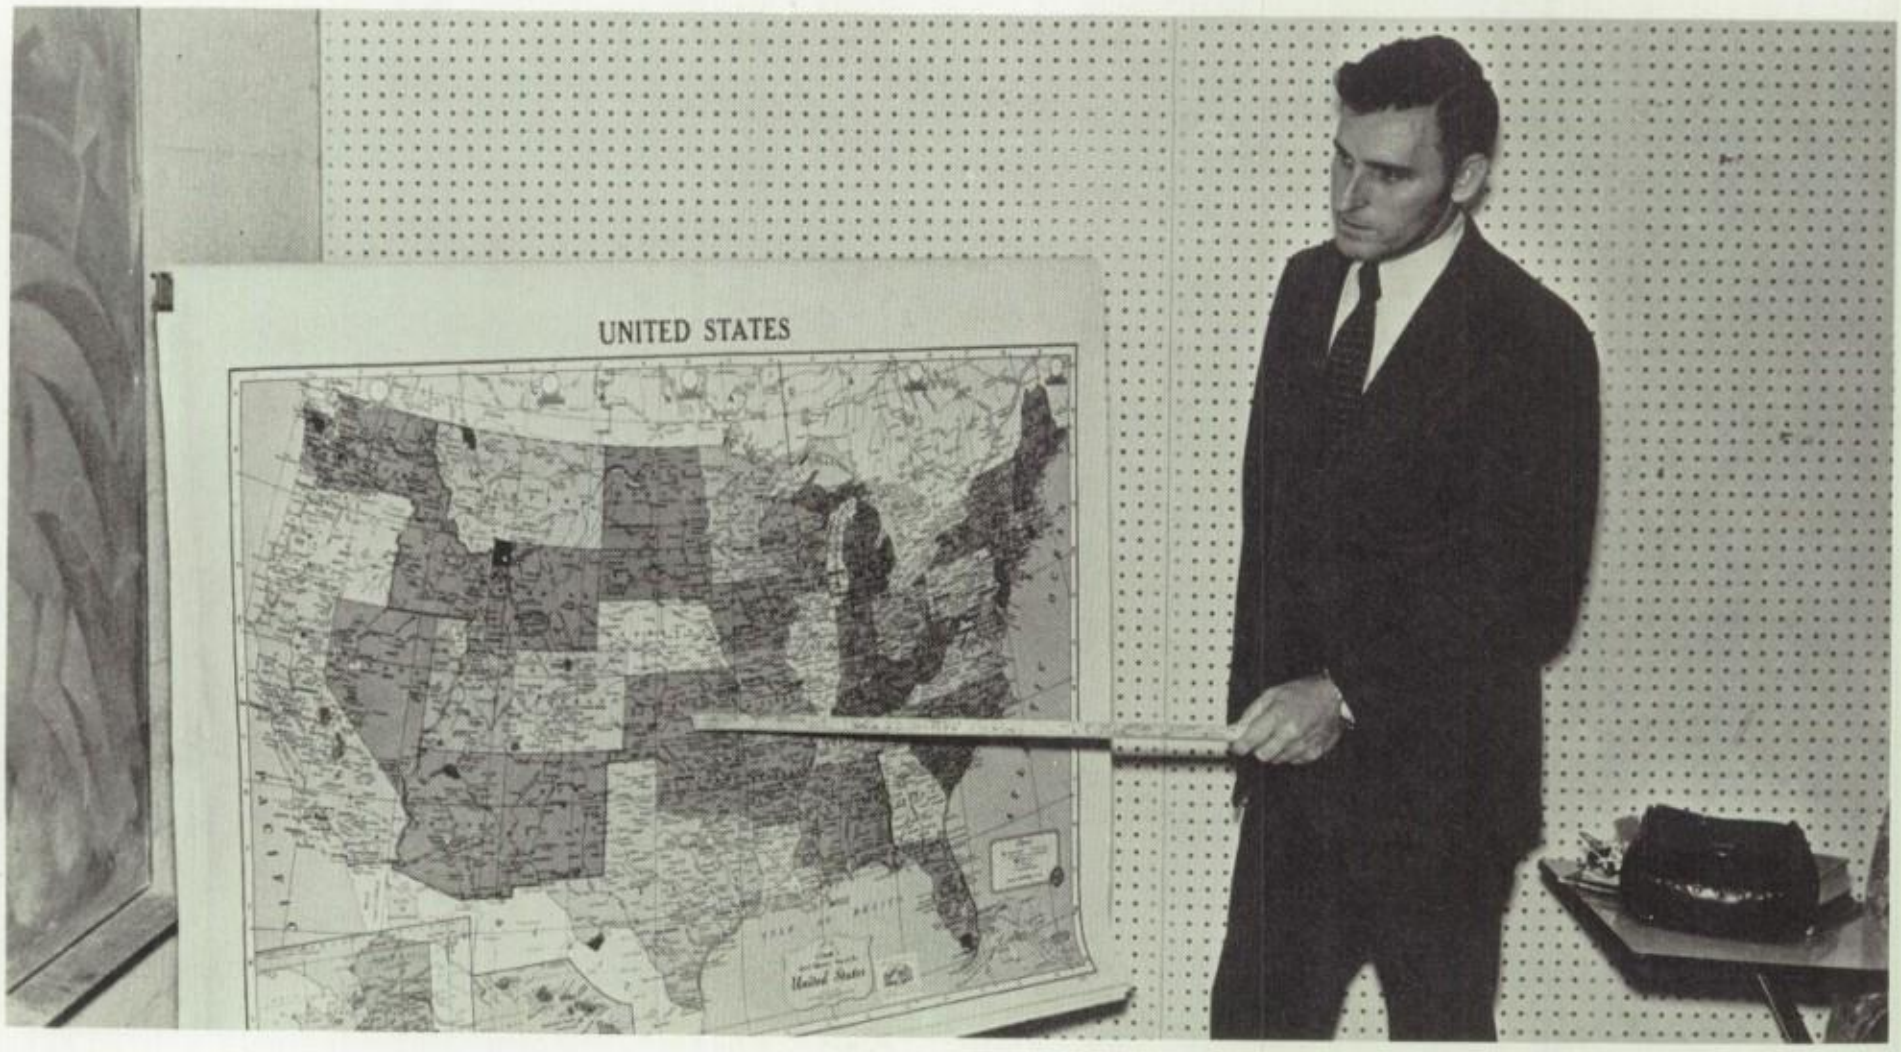
BELOW: Mr. Prichard, school counselor, relaxes before a scheduled counseling session.

American History Classes Utilize KET



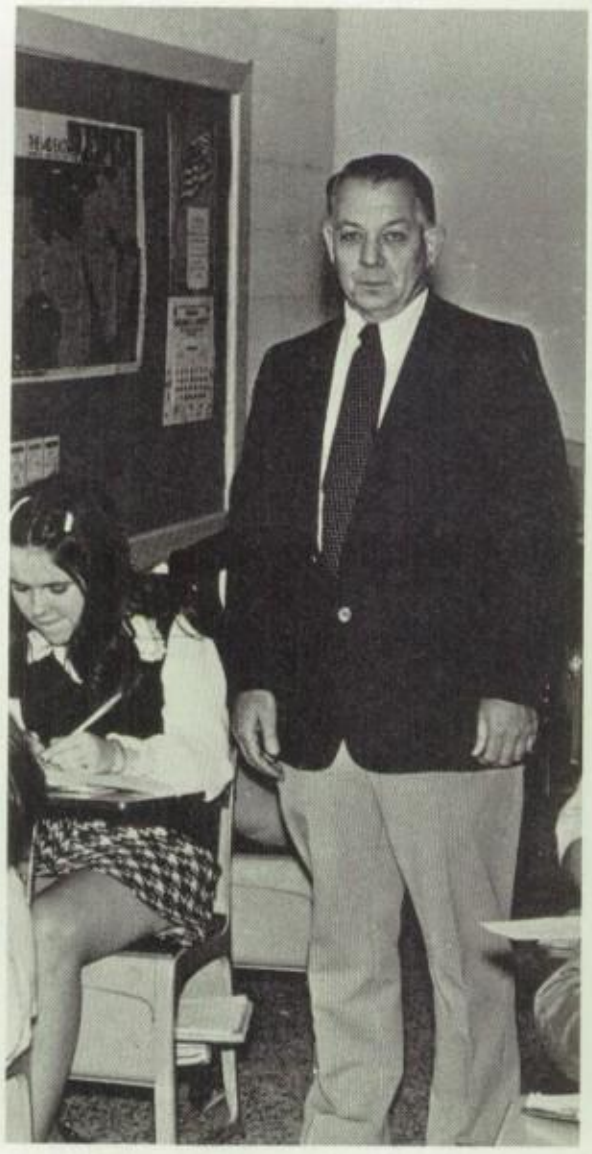
TOP: This year Mr. Cordle supplemented his teaching of American History by arranging for his classes to view a weekly lesson in this subject area over the Ky. Educational Television network.

RIGHT: Senior, Lola Sparks completes her assignment for American Government class, while Mr. Wheeler waits patiently by.

FAR RIGHT: Directing his economics class's attention to the chalkboard, Mr. Sammons emphasizes a major point in his discussion.

Mr. Sparks

Mr. Vaughan



Mrs. Hall
Mrs. Rice
Miss Wheeler
Mr. Williams

Faculty

Mathematics Promote Student Involvement

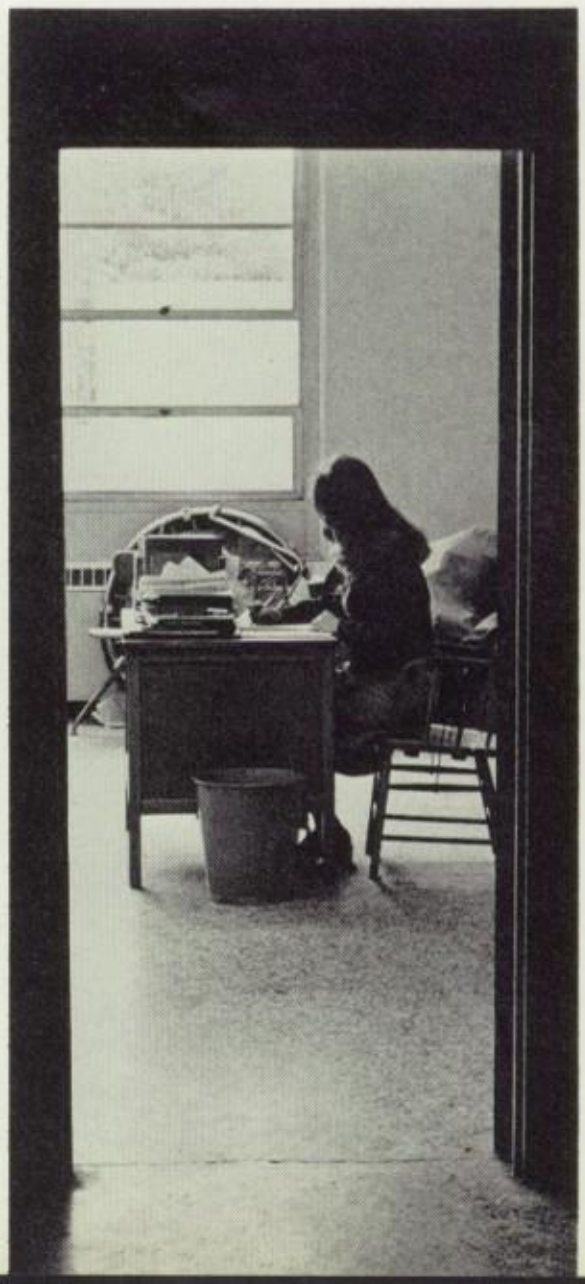
BELOW LEFT: In biology class, Miss Butler discusses with Robert Justice the behavior of a mouse as it maneuvers toward the reward.

BELOW: Long after the dismissal bell has sounded, Miss Hinkle reflects on the activities of the day and makes preparations for classes the next day.



Faculty

Communication Creates Understanding

TOP: Freshmen who needed to sharpen their reading and vocabulary skills enrolled in basic reading classes under the supervision of Mrs. Walker.

RIGHT: James Carter seeks help from Miss Allen, his 'maestra', teacher, in his doing a translation during Spanish class.

BELOW: Librarian, Mrs. E. Butler examines the information before typing the catalog cards for recently purchased library books.

TOP: In Mrs. Young's freshman English class, attention is focused on a student prepared sentence diagram.

CENTER: Using the READERS' DIGEST enrichment program as a bases for reading, vocabulary and composition development, Mrs. Butler discusses an assignment from this source with one of her junior English classes.

Mrs. Keeton
Miss Williamson
Miss Skaggs

Challenging Skills Promote Satisfaction

RIGHT: In his first year as drivers' education instructor at LHS, Mr. Keeton, while conducting a road test, makes notations about a student's driving.

BELOW: Mrs. Stanton demonstrates to Beverly Clay and Susie Boyd, students in her freshman home economics class, the art of creating umbrella stands from cans; one of the various projects in the Christmas crafts unit.

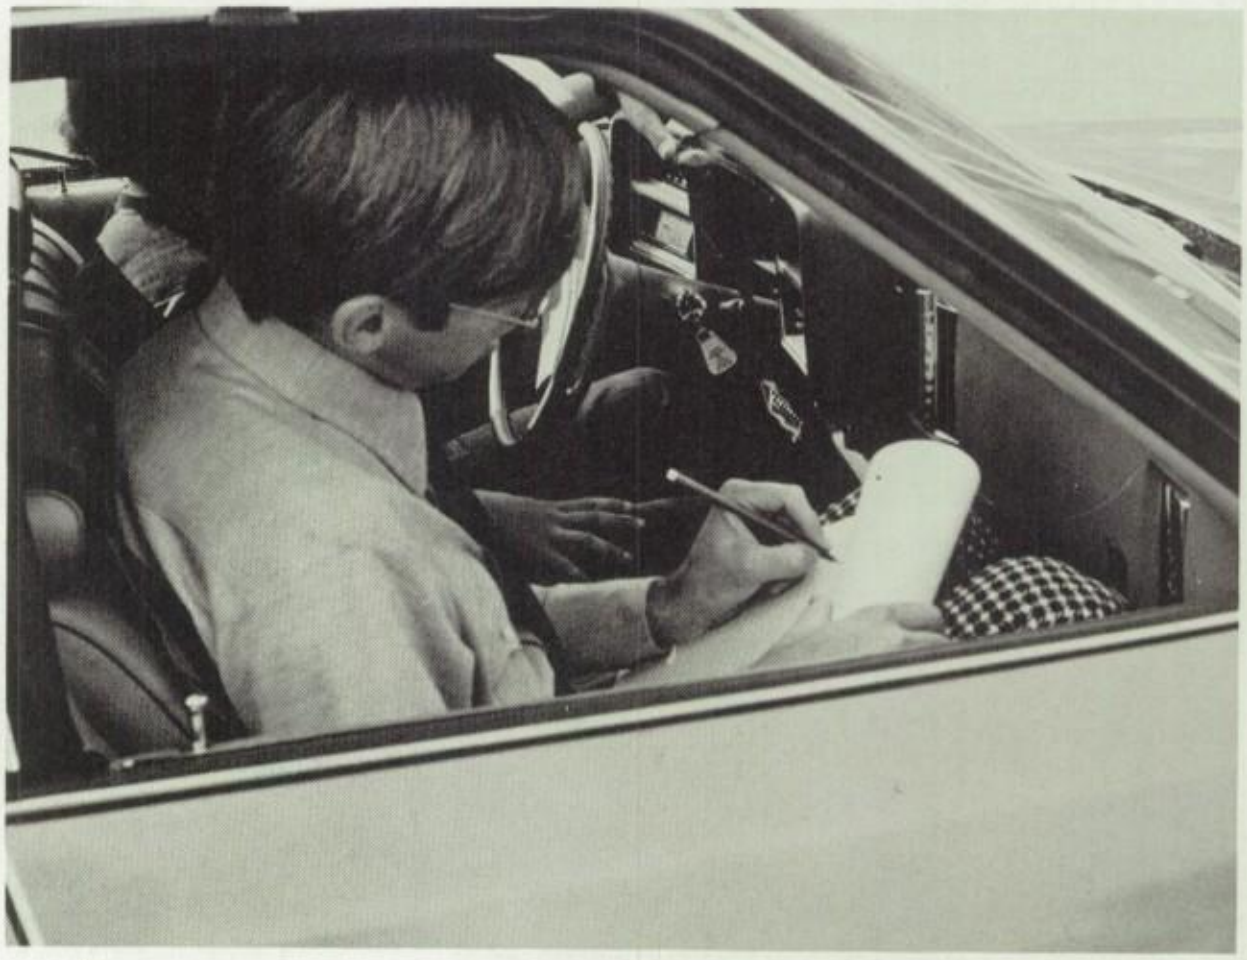
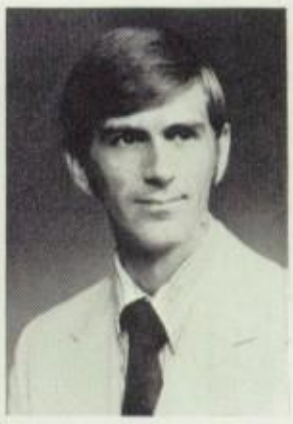
OPPOSITE BELOW: With the assistance of Mr. Moore, industrial arts teacher, Jim Bevins uses a lathe to turn a bedpost; an initial phase in the construction of his class project.





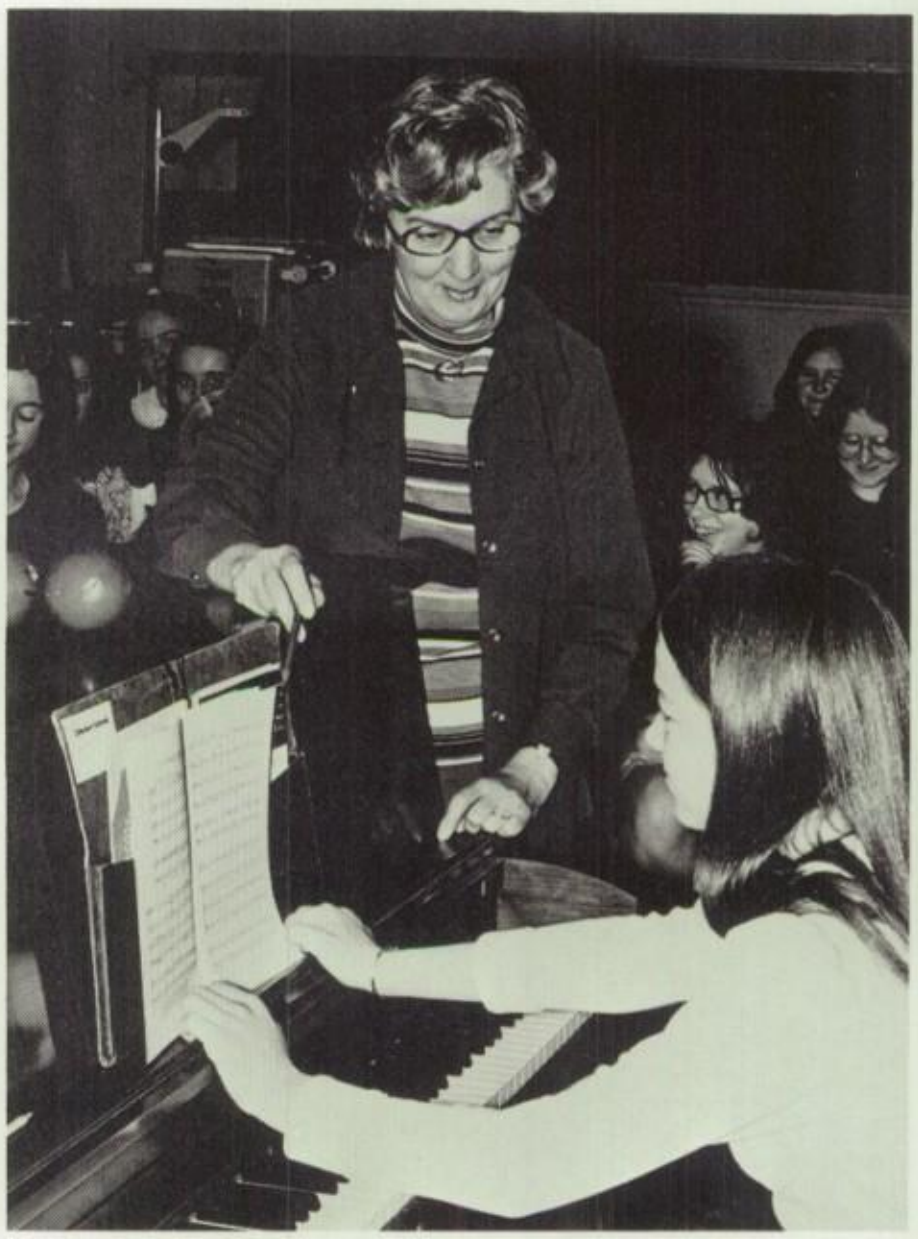
Miss Young
Mr. Kelley
Mrs. Bailey

Enrichment Of the Mind And Body

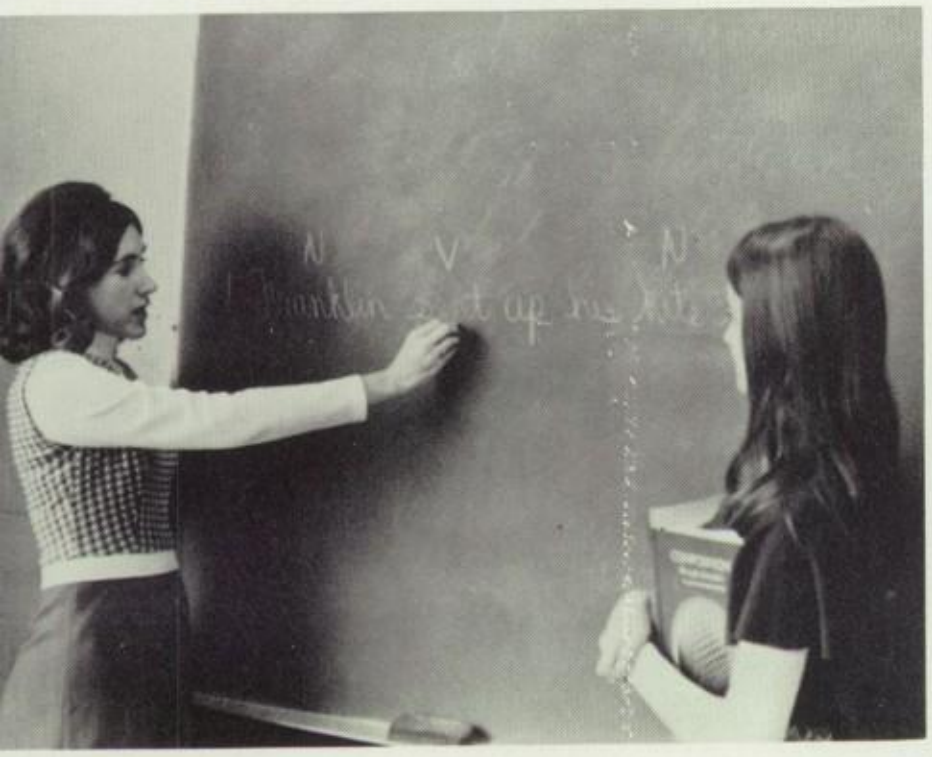
RIGHT: Mr. Phillips ponders the musical selection being played.

BELOW: In demonstrating the art of pottery making to an art class, Mrs. Cain smooths a coil she has just knitted together.

BELOW RIGHT: Choral instructor, Mrs. Hinkle, pauses during chorus class to discuss the piano accompaniment with Debbie Wallace.



Mr. Varney
Mrs. Prichard



Faculty

7th and 8th Grade Staff Increased to 12

LEFT: After reviewing the newspaper articles on current events, Mrs. Preece prepares to record the students' grades.

CENTER: Miss Webb illustrates to Susie Maloney the function of particular words in a sentence.

BELOW: Conducting a review of assigned spelling words, Mrs. Hutchinson listens intently for correctness.

Mrs. Williams

Miss Combs

Mrs. Kelly

Mrs. McDowell

Golf Team Places Fourth in Regional Tourney

ABOVE: Playing on the golf team this year were B. Prichard, J. Langefeld, G. Nelson, S. Jenks, J. Michael, E. Butler, C. Bromley and Robert L. Prichard, golf coach. Our golf team placed fourth out of 16 teams in the regional tournament.

LEFT: Scott Jenks shot a two-over par 72 to capture medalist honors at the Northeastern Kentucky Conference Golf Tournament at the Paintsville Country Club. In regional tournament action Scott placed fourth in individual competition and thus qualified for state tourney competition at Fort Knox on May 28th and 29th.

FAR LEFT: Participants on the track team were A. Blevins, R. Blankenship, B. Muncy, J. Bentley, R. Fugitt, T. Diamond, J. Salyers, T. Sloas, B. Wallace, B. Marcum, T. Marcum, G. Nelson, R. Frazier. Absent from picture was Bill J. Sparks, track coach. In the NEKC conference track meet, the LHS track team totaled 19 points and placed fifth in the five-team field.

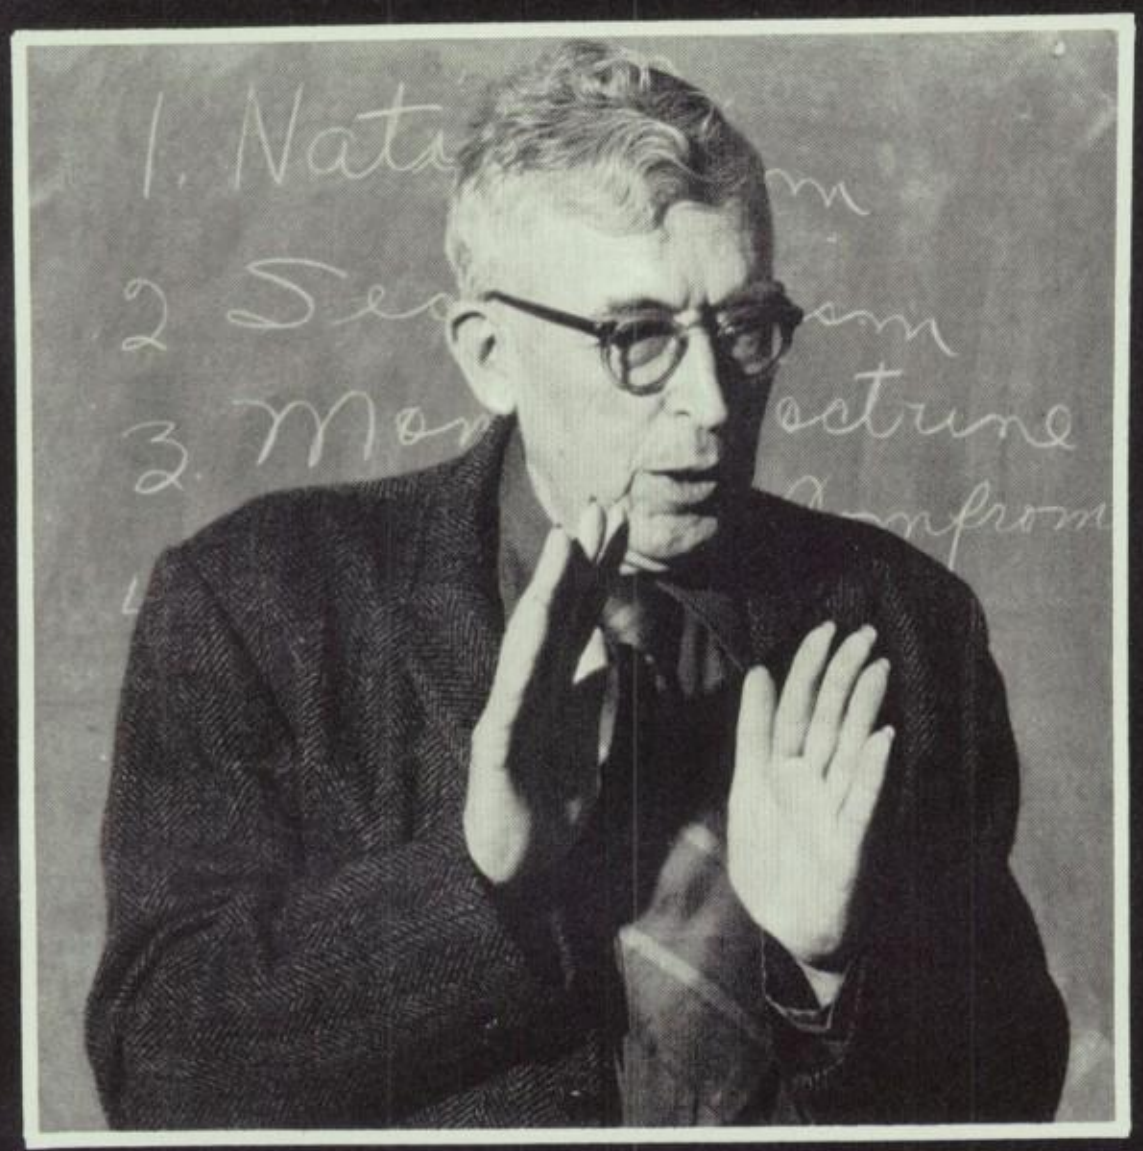
In Memoriam



Charles Calvin Burton

(October 10, 1914–November 15, 1973)

I am firm in my belief that a teacher lives on and on through his students.

Good teaching is forever and the teacher is immortal.

As we the yearbook staff of 1974 bring this Scarlack to its conclusion, we reflect upon all the faces which bring back memories, happy and sad.

We hope you get as much enjoyment from this yearbook, as we got compiling it. Now we say good-bye to all those copy sheets, tri-mats, cropping wheels, broken rulers, photographs and especially to all those "faces" that labored together at this task.
